

NCS establishes itself as the needs of the area are emerging
Action is taken by a keen number of individuals

NCS set up their training department and offer a Diploma in Counselling

NCS move premises to CDC
1st group of diploma graduates

NCS Launch a 2-year programme with Colaiste Dhulaigh - Introduction to Counselling Skills.

First Ageing with confidence programme in Ireland launched 2001-date
National Lottery funding received

NCS opened 2 outreach centres: Greendale Centre in Kilbarrack and the Mornington Centre in Artane from 2009 - 2013

NCS becomes a member of AACPI (formally AACI) - A National representative body for community based counselling
NCS develops relationship with Target and Base
NCS received another 13% FSA funding cut

NCS increases it training capacity with an intake in 2 years.
NCS expands Aging with Confidence groups
NCS establish new relationship with Tusla (formally FSA)
NCS received another FSA 13% funding cut
NCS engage in an organisational review

A number of close meetings with Tusla around funding and service sustainability
NCS Website and Facebook is launched

30th year celebration

NCS source rooms in St Joseph's Family Centre as the service grows
Depart of Social Welfare funding received

Legal incorporation of Northside Counselling Service

NCS celebrates 10 years of service to the community
NCS visits The Office of the President of Ireland Áras an Uachtaráin - Mary Robinson

1st class of IACP Accredited graduates
Suicide support groups launched 2000-2006
Life skill management groups launched 2000-2010

Department of Gaeltacht, Rural and Community Affairs Funding received

NCS along to the recession see an increase in client numbers and a 13% FSA funding cut

NCS doubled the number of counselling rooms to grow the service to meet community needs
NCS Diploma course included new module CBT
NCS acquired new training room in CDC
NCS received another 13% funding cut

NCS received another 13% funding cut (50% real term cut)
NCS CD takes on chair role in AACPI - A National representative body for community

NCS finance function established in-house
NCS Clinical information formally presented through National database